HIGHLIGHTS OF DANA CUP

The Dana Cup Hjørring

Dana Cup is all about soccer. The Dana Cup Hjørring is International Youth Soccer at its best – where you meet the rest of the World in Denmark. It's Denmark's largest sporting event and the World's third largest youth soccer tournament. Dana Cup has a unique international atmosphere and at the same time takes place in a secure area, one of the most beautiful in Denmark.

International soccer stars have participated in the Dana Cup before their names became known all around the world. Players like Zé Roberto from the Brazilian national team; Or Denmark's Brian Laudrup and Peter Schmeichel – European Champions from 1992.

Participating nations

Every year Dana Cup features some of the most famous youth clubs from around the world. For example Pequeninos do Jockey from São Paulo in Brazil, Chivas Guadalajara, Cruz Azul from Mexico or Ipswich Town FC from England. At the Dana Cup, exotic teams from the other side of the world meet teams from all over Europe, from the Ural Mountains to the Atlantic Ocean, from the North Cape to the Mediterranean.

The Competition

All teams are placed in groups with an international mixture. Dana Cup uses more than 50 fantastic grassed soccer fields, so the tournament can be played at the highest level. An experienced group of referees ensure the tournament is played in a correct and fair manner.

More than 800 teams participate each year at the Dana Cup. When more than 2.000 games are played, 60 teams have made it to the A and B finals. Regardless of level, each team in the Dana Cup is certain of playing a minimum of 4 games and they have the opportunity to test themselves in international competition.
